4. Chapter 4

In this Chapter four, the viSvarUpam of the Lord is described which is like a summary of purushasUktam. The following StOkAs can be used for regular prayer (pArAyaNam). The devotee dEvaSarma invokes the Lord thus:

O vEmkaTESa, Lord of the Deity lakshmi! The entire creation is under delusion due to You and nobody can understand or get over such a delusion. Even the wise people also are under the spell of the delusion and they also cannot estimate the magnitude such a spell. Hence, You are the undefeated conqueror of the entire universe. Only by showering Your Grace, You liberate the devotees from the delusion and the associated bondages. I seek protection in You the greatest Lord and I plead You to bless me to get over the the spell of delusion. In fact, BagavadgIta stresses these aspects of getting over delusion in Chapter 7, SlOkAs 13-14.

O Lord! One who is a doubting “Thomas” (i.e., doubts about You and Your virtues), You are incomprehensible. Yet, You help the sincere devotees in understanding Your virtues and the greatness of Your Grace. You are the well rounded person with virtues like compassion, bliss and happiness. You destroy the persons with demonic qualities. You enable the wise and good-mannered people to understand You in an appropriate form based on their abilities. At the same time, You are imperceptible to the evil people. You are also comprehensible to some extent via the true knowledge of the vEdAs. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, I always pray to You!

Day-to-day life is like a jungle. A jungle is a place where wild animals thrive on the philosophy “survival of the fittest” by killing one another and the weakest ones (which are without any protection) become “a prey” to the strongest ones. Similarly the samsAra (i.e., the day-to-day life) is full of obstacles, suffering from diseases, poverty, distress, fear, erosion due to ego, pride, prejudice, jealousy, selfishness, lust as well as immorality. O Lord, I am entangled in the clutches of such a deplorable samsAra without any protection and safety net. For such a deplorable samsAra, You are the only One who can offer proper protection. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, I am always eager to pray to Your lotus feet in order to get relief from distress by seeking Your Grace for protection!

O Lord! You grant eternal bliss and happiness to the liberated souls. You are at the focal point of the bright radiation of the sun and hence, You are called SipivishTa. You are the embodiment of eternal bliss and happiness. You preach divine wisdom to the people who do good deeds. You are the so called Lord hari because You are the prime source for the vEda, vEdAmgAs and SAstrAs which teach the people the right path for salvation. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, I always pray to You!

O Lord! You grant pure body to the good people so that they can worship you with austerity. You also grant them all the prosperity, wealth and all the authority in this life and heavenly pleasures after this life. After they reap the fruits of their good deeds, with Your Grace, they take rebirth on this earth. In their new birth, with Your Grace, they follow the path of austerity, sincerely dedicated concentration and deep devotion to pray to You. With Your Grace, they give up vices like anger, greed, etc., and they lead an ascetic life with dedicated devotion. Please see a similar purport in BagavadgIta (Chapter 9, SIOkAs 20-21). O Lord of Goddess lakshmi! Due to several of my bad deeds, I am not in a position to understand Your acts and deeds bearing a variety of interesting stories. You know every thing. It is needless to narrate to You about my limitations. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, be merciful!

By chanting Your holy name, all the dreadful sins disappear. Thus, the body and the soul of a person are getting purified. O the Omnipresent Lord! You are not only pleased to see such a purified person but also blessing that person. Later, You are making that person to do good deeds only.

By doing good deeds, one gets to know the divine wisdom. Such a divine wisdom helps me to get near and dear to You. Ultimately it helps me to understand and experience Your Grace which liberates me from pains due to getting into wombs and the associated births. Thus, Your Grace helps me to get mOksha, the true ultimate goal of life. These three SIOkAs narrate the Glory and Grace of chanting the Lord's name. O Lord! Innumerable worthy charities like gODAna (giving away cows), BUdAna (giving away land), kanyA dAna (giving away brides by celebrating marriages), suvarNa dAna (giving away gold, cash, etc.), etc., do not match the fruits yielded by the Glory of chanting Your holy name. Similarly, performing sacred sacrificial yaj~nAs, feeding the scholarly brAmhmIns and poor-feeding in sacred places daily, etc., yield insignificantly small benefits as compared to the Grace due to chanting Your blessed name. Such is the awesomely superb and pure Grace, yielded by chanting Your holy name which does not involve any expenses at all. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, I always pray to You!

O Lord! Chanting Your holy name alone will destroy all the sins of a devotee. That virtue enhances the fruits of doing good deeds, makes the world happy, destroys all fears, makes an individual very prosperous and ultimately liberates the person leading to mOksha, the eternal bliss. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, I always pray to You!

O Lord! One should be wise enough to think that the sincere devotion leads one towards liberation, the mOksha. If that person, (may be a sinner – does not matter) has his/her mind fixed on Your holy feet, all the sins will be nullified. Such a person cannot even be troubled by ropes of death of yama(known as the Deity of death). It is needless to say that Your name is so superb and powerful. O such a supreme Lord vEmkaTESa, I pray to You!
